

ELIGIBILITY

Membership is by invitation only for retirees and those over the age of 55.

OBEIL group is open to participants of the Electrotechnology industry and includes contractors, consultants and suppliers.

NECA Victoria
proudly supports

OBEIL

Electrical Industry Legends

To find out more about the OBEIL, contact NECA on

1300 300 031

www.neca.asn.au/vic

ABOUT OBEIL

The OBEIL was established in 1996 by five individuals with a common link to the ElectroTechnology industry over many years, the foundation members were Peter Glynn, Ron McBean, Don Rissman, Don Safstrom and Brian Seymour.

The purpose of OBEIL was to offer a forum for the retirees and legends of the industry to meet at least once a year in a loosely structured social environment and maintain contact with old industry mates.

FEATURES & BENEFITS

- › Access to a like-minded community
- › Invitation to the annual networking lunch
- › OBEIL Newsletter printed and delivered quarterly
- › A copy of the NECA News, the official national NECA magazine delivered to your door quarterly
- › Invitation to participate in the NECA Vic Mentoring Program. Become a mentor and support the ongoing development of those in the Electrotechnology industry by passing on knowledge and strengthening the industry through education
- › Stay up-to-date with industry with NECA's communication channels

